Live Music And DJ Booking

We have an expansive and diverse roster of professional live musicians and DJs to help any venue, event, or festival truly enhance their customer experience. Live music is proven to increase revenue for venues by keeping patrons entertained and engaged.

Our three pillars of booking services include:

Dedicated Agents who manage all aspects of the bookings including in-depth SOPs for the artists to ensure smooth gigs and transitions. White-glove custom tailored approach to selecting the right artist for your concept or event.

A hassle-free approach: Full artist communication pre-booking and on the performance day, handling any last-minute substitutions. Letting you focus on your management business.

We manage all billing and tax paperwork, making it easy for venues to pay only a single vendor, rather than billing many in a rotating roster. We also include supplemental marketing services and require and manage the oversight of artist marketing themselves.

About Us

Introducing The Music Bureau, where passion meets precision in the realm of music programming and booking. As a specialized agency, we pride ourselves on offering a seamlessly organized and streamlined experience, alleviating the headaches often associated with the intricate process of curating musical events. Our unique approach combines a bespoke, custom touch with a hands-on, white-glove service that caters to the diverse needs of our clients.

Founded by highly experienced musicians and talent buyers, The Music Bureau was born out of a desire to fill a void in the hospitality industry. Our team brings a wealth of knowledge and expertise, ensuring that every musical aspect is tailored to perfection. Whether you're hosting a grand event or an intimate gathering, we are committed to delivering an unparalleled musical experience that resonates with your vision. Trust The Music Bureau to transform your event into a harmonious celebration, where the art of music meets the precision of professionalism.

At Music Bureau, our unwavering passion for Live Music and DJ Booking, coupled with meticulous Event Production/Coordination and Booking experience, fuels our commitment to curate extraordinary experiences for events of any scale. From weekly programming to large stage activations, music festivals, corporate celebrations, and private parties, we infuse every occasion with a touch of musical magic.

Our mission is to seamlessly weave an enchanting tapestry for our clients' guests, ensuring an unforgettable experience. Simultaneously, we create a harmonious and efficient working environment for our talented artists and dedicated staff.
