Passion Meets Precision

The Music Bureau is a specialized music programming and booking agency born out of a desire to fill a void in the hospitality industry.

Founded by experienced musicians and talent buyers, we bring a wealth of knowledge ensuring every musical aspect is tailored to perfection — whether you're hosting a grand event or an intimate gathering.

1 Vendor

One bill, one contact, zero chaos

Large Artist Roster

Diverse genres for any occasion

White-Glove Service

Custom-tailored to your concept

Live Music & DJ Booking

An expansive and diverse roster of professional live musicians and DJs to help any venue, event, or festival truly enhance their customer experience.

Dedicated Agents

Manage all aspects of bookings including in-depth SOPs. White-glove, custom-tailored approach to selecting the right artist for your concept.

Hassle-Free Booking

Full artist communication pre-booking and day-of, handling last-minute substitutions — so you can focus on running your business. With over 20 years of experience in the industry, we help venues find new and creative ways to leverage music programming.

Billing & Marketing

We manage all billing and tax paperwork — one vendor, not many. We also include supplemental marketing services and artist marketing oversight.

SERVICES

Event Consulting & Production

Full-service event consulting, production, and planning — from conception to completion.

We're creative partners, not vendors — capturing your vision and making it reality. From weekly programming to festivals, corporate events, and private parties, we bring the music magic.

What Our Partners Say

Working with the Music Bureau has been a great experience! Having a team that understands the industry as well as has the best interest of our business and it's customers in mind has been a dream. They make it extremely easy and fun to book music at our restaurant, and any entertainment needs we ever have!

Giancarlo's | Venue Manager

The Music Bureau did an amazing job helping us throw an amazing charity event that raised money for two local charities they were extremely professional. The set up looked amazing. They worked with the music artists and coordinated the run of show with the script and the presentation that we needed on the screen. They really are one stop shop for events and production. I will definitely be using them again for my next event!

Brittini Cotilla | Charity Event Planner

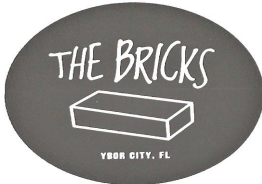

The best company in music, hard stop. The team at TMB are experts in all music production needs and are true partners for our business. Bookings, events, equipment and everything in between. We're lucky to work with TMB.
